Welcome to EMERALD LAB

Thank you for choosing EMERALD LAB, your online English learning platform. This book was designed for absolute beginners who want to build a strong foundation in English — from the alphabet to full daily conversations.

This course follows the CEFR A1 (beginner) level. By the end of this book, you will be able to introduce yourself, talk about your family and routine, describe people and places, order food, ask for directions, discuss the weather, and speak using the present simple and present continuous tenses.

How This Book Is Organized

- 15 units, each covering one clear topic of everyday English.
- Every unit includes: Learning Objectives, Vocabulary Table, Grammar Focus, Example Sentences, a Dialogue, a Reading passage, and four Exercises (A, B, C, D).
- Exercises move from controlled practice (fill-in-the-blank, matching) to free practice (writing and speaking).
- A full Answer Key and Vocabulary Glossary are included at the end of the book.

How to Study With This Book

1. Read the Learning Objectives to know what you will achieve in the unit.
2. Study the Vocabulary Table and try to make your own sentences with each word.
3. Read the Grammar Focus box carefully, and re-read the Example Sentences aloud.
4. Read the Dialogue aloud, ideally with a partner or your EMERALD LAB tutor.
5. Complete Exercises A and B on your own, then check your answers in the Answer Key.
6. Complete Exercises C and D with a partner, tutor, or in your EMERALD LAB speaking session.
7. Review the unit once more after 2–3 days to strengthen your memory.

A Note for EMERALD LAB Teachers

This book is designed to match the EMERALD LAB beginner course structure, unit by unit. Each unit corresponds to one lesson (or one week) of study. Feel free to adapt the speaking exercises for live or recorded video sessions on the platform.

| please    | adverb         | a polite word used when asking for something | Repeat that, please.            |

GRAMMAR FOCUS: Capital letters and simple sentences

- Every sentence in English begins with a capital letter.
- The word 'I' is always written with a capital letter, wherever it appears in a sentence.
- Names of people, cities, and countries always start with a capital letter (Anna, London, Uzbekistan).
- A sentence usually ends with a full stop (.), a question mark (?), or an exclamation mark (!).
- Example: 'My name is Sara. I am a student.'

PRONUNCIATION & STUDY TIP

Practice saying the alphabet out loud every morning until the letters feel natural in your mouth.

Example Sentences

- Hello! My name is Diyor.
- Nice to meet you.
- How do you spell your name?
- My name is spelled D-I-Y-O-R.
- This is my pen, and that is your pencil.
- Please open your book to page five.
- The teacher writes the new word on the board.
- Goodbye, see you next class!

Common Mistakes to Avoid

- Forgetting the capital letter for 'I' — always write 'I', never 'i'.
- Confusing 'pen' and 'pencil' — a pen uses ink, a pencil uses graphite.
- Saying 'What your name?' instead of 'What is your name?'

Dialogue

Dialogue: First Day in Class

Teacher: Good morning, everyone! Welcome to English class.

Teacher: Let's start with introductions. What is your name?

Aziza: My name is Aziza.

Teacher: Nice to meet you, Aziza. How do you spell that?

Aziza: A-Z-I-Z-A.

Teacher: Thank you. And you? What is your name?

Jasur: My name is Jasur. Nice to meet you too.

Teacher: Great! Please open your books to page one.

Aziza: Excuse me, I don't have a pen.

Teacher: No problem, here is a pencil for you.

Reading Practice

My name is Laylo. I am a new student in this class. Every morning, I bring my book, my pen, and my pencil to school. My teacher is very kind. She always says 'good morning' when I enter the classroom. I like learning new words every day.

Reading Comprehension

1. Who greets the class first in the dialogue?
2. How does Aziza spell her name?
3. What does the teacher give Aziza because she forgot her pen?
4. Why does Laylo like her teacher?

| excuse me | phrase         | a polite phrase used to get attention | Excuse me, where is the office? |

GRAMMAR FOCUS: The verb 'to be' — am / is / are

- 'To be' changes form depending on the subject: I am, you are, he/she/it is, we are, they are.
- We use 'to be' to describe feelings, jobs, and identity: 'I am happy.' 'She is a doctor.'
- Question form: swap the subject and the verb — 'Are you tired?' 'Is he your friend?'
- Negative form: add 'not' after the verb — 'I am not busy.' 'They are not here.'
- Contractions are common in speaking: I'm, you're, he's, she's, it's, we're, they're.

PRONUNCIATION & STUDY TIP

Match your greeting to the time of day — this small detail makes you sound more natural.

Example Sentences

- Good morning! How are you today?
- I am fine, thank you. And you?
- This is my friend, Otabek.
- Nice to meet you, Otabek.
- I'm a little tired, but I'm happy to be here.
- Excuse me, are you a new student?
- Yes, I am. Thanks for asking.
- Sorry, I'm busy right now. See you later!

Common Mistakes to Avoid

- Saying 'I am fine, and you' without 'thank you' — politeness matters: 'I'm fine, thank you. And you?'
- Using 'good night' as a greeting — 'good night' is only for saying goodbye before sleep.
- Forgetting to introduce a friend properly: use 'This is my friend, ____.'

Dialogue

Dialogue: Meeting a New Friend

Karim: Good afternoon! Are you new here?

Nodira: Yes, I am. My name is Nodira.

Karim: Nice to meet you, Nodira. I'm Karim.

Nodira: Nice to meet you too, Karim. How are you?

Karim: I'm fine, thanks. A little busy, but fine.

Nodira: I understand. This is my friend, Alisher.

Karim: Hello, Alisher! Welcome to our class.

Alisher: Thank you very much.

Karim: No problem. See you both tomorrow!

Nodira: Goodbye, Karim. Have a nice evening!

Reading Practice

Every morning, Malika says 'good morning' to her classmates. In the afternoon, she is usually busy with homework. In the evening, she is tired, but she is happy because she learned new English words. She always says 'thank you' to her teacher and 'goodbye' to her friends before going home.

Reading Comprehension

28. What time of day do Karim and Nodira meet?
29. Who is Alisher in the dialogue?
30. Why does Malika say 'thank you' to her teacher?
31. What does Karim say when he is asked how he is?

Exercises

Exercise A: Fill in with am / is / are

- 32. I _____ a student.
- 33. She _____ my friend.
- 34. They _____ busy today.
- 35. He _____ not tired.
- 36. We _____ happy to meet you.
- 37. _____ you fine today?

Exercise B: Match the greeting with the correct time of day

(Match each greeting on the left with the correct time on the right.)

- 38. Good morning
- 39. Good afternoon
- 40. Good evening

Exercise C: Write your own sentences

- 41. Write a short introduction of a friend to another person.
- 42. Write a sentence using 'excuse me'.
- 43. Write two sentences about how you feel today, using 'am'.

Exercise D: Speaking practice

- 44. Greet a partner using the correct greeting for the time of day.
- 45. Introduce a classmate to another classmate.
- 46. Practice a short conversation: greeting, asking 'how are you', and saying goodbye.

Exercise E: Grammar Practice

Complete each sentence using what you learned in the Grammar Focus box.

- 47. Good _____ ! (before midday)

48. I am _____ , thank you.
49. This is my _____ , Malika.
50. _____ me, where is the office?
51. I am a little _____ today; I need rest.
52. _____ to our school!
53. _____ , I am late.
54. Nice to _____ you.

CULTURE CORNER

Native English speakers often ask 'How are you?' as a routine greeting rather than a deep question — a short 'Fine, thanks!' is usually the expected reply.

|------------|----------------|-------------------|------------------------------|
| few | determiner     | a small number of | I have a few pens in my bag. |

GRAMMAR FOCUS: Cardinal and ordinal numbers

- Cardinal numbers show quantity: one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten...
- Numbers 13–19 end in '-teen': thirteen, fourteen, fifteen... Numbers 20, 30, 40... end in '-ty': twenty, thirty, forty.
- Ordinal numbers show order: first, second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth.
- We use 'How old are you?' to ask about age, and answer with 'I am ____ years old.'
- We use 'How much is it?' to ask about price, and answer with 'It is ____ dollars/som.'

PRONUNCIATION & STUDY TIP

Practice counting backwards from twenty to one — it trains your ear as much as counting forwards.

Example Sentences

- I am twenty-two years old.
- My phone number is zero nine zero, one two three, four five six seven.
- This bag costs thirty dollars.
- There are thirty students in our class.
- Today is my first day at this school.
- He finished in second place in the race.
- Can you count from one to one hundred?
- I have a few books on my desk.

Common Mistakes to Avoid

- Writing 'fiveteen' instead of 'fifteen'.
- Forgetting the hyphen in numbers like 'twenty-two'.
- Mixing up 'third' and 'three' — 'third' is an order, 'three' is a quantity.

Dialogue

Dialogue: At the Bookstore

Clerk: Hello! How can I help you today?

Sardor: Hi, how much is this notebook?

Clerk: It's five dollars.

Sardor: And how much is this pen?

Clerk: The pen is two dollars.

Sardor: Okay, I will take one notebook and two pens.

Clerk: That's nine dollars in total.

Sardor: Here you go. Thank you!

Clerk: Thank you! Have a nice day.

Sardor: You too, goodbye!

Reading Practice

Farrukh is nine years old. He is in the third grade. There are twenty-five students in his class. His classroom has one teacher, twenty-five desks, and one hundred books on the shelf. Every day, Farrukh counts his pencils: he has ten pencils in his bag.

Reading Comprehension

55. How much does the notebook cost in the dialogue?
56. How old is Farrukh, and what grade is he in?
57. How many pencils does Farrukh have?
58. What two items does Sardor buy at the bookstore?

Exercises

Exercise A: Write the number in words

| Word            | Part of Speech | Meaning                  | Example                              |
|-----------------|----------------|--------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| relative | noun           | a member of one's family | We have many relatives in Samarkand. |

GRAMMAR FOCUS: Possessive adjectives

- Possessive adjectives show who something belongs to: my, your, his, her, its, our, their.
- They come before a noun: 'my brother', 'her mother', 'their house'.
- Unlike some languages, English possessive adjectives do not change with the gender of the noun that follows.
- 'His' is used for males, 'her' for females, and 'its' for objects and animals.
- Example: 'This is my family. My father's name is Bekzod, and his job is a teacher.'

PRONUNCIATION & STUDY TIP

Draw your family tree and label each person with the correct possessive adjective (my, his, her).

Example Sentences

- This is my family: my mother, my father, and my two sisters.
- Her brother is a doctor, and his wife is a nurse.
- Our grandmother lives with us.
- Their daughter is studying English too.
- Is he your father or your grandfather?
- My parents are married for twenty-five years.
- I have three relatives in this city.
- Its name is Max — that's our family dog!

Common Mistakes to Avoid

- Using 'he' for a female family member — check the gender before choosing his/her.
- Forgetting the apostrophe in possessives like 'father's name'.
- Saying 'my family is' when talking about several people — remember 'family' can take a singular verb in English.

Dialogue

Dialogue: Talking About Family

Gulnora: Do you have a big family?

Sherzod: Yes, I do. I have two brothers and one sister.

Gulnora: That's a big family! What does your father do?

Sherzod: My father is an engineer, and my mother is a teacher.

Gulnora: Nice! Are your grandparents alive?

Sherzod: Yes, my grandmother lives with us.

Gulnora: That's wonderful. I only have one sister.

Sherzod: Is she older or younger than you?

Gulnora: She is younger. She is twelve years old.

Sherzod: That's a nice age!

Reading Practice

Dilnoza has a large family. Her mother's name is Zulfiya, and her father's name is Alisher. She has one brother and two sisters. Her grandmother and grandfather also live with them. On weekends, all the relatives visit their house, and they eat dinner together. Dilnoza loves her family very much.

Reading Comprehension

| table  | noun           | a piece of furniture with a flat top   | The book is on the table.     |
| chair  | noun           | a piece of furniture for sitting       | Please sit on this chair.     |
| window | noun           | an opening in a wall for light and air | Open the window, please.      |
| door   | noun           | a movable barrier for entering         | Close the door, please.       |

| Word | Part of Speech | Meaning | Example |
|------|----------------|---------|---------|
|      |                | a room  |         |

GRAMMAR FOCUS: This, that, these, those

- 'This' and 'these' point to things near the speaker; 'that' and 'those' point to things farther away.
- 'This' and 'that' are used with singular nouns: 'This is my pen.' 'That is your book.'
- 'These' and 'those' are used with plural nouns: 'These are my pens.' 'Those are your books.'
- Adjectives, like colors, come before the noun: 'a red chair', 'two blue chairs'.
- Example: 'This chair is red, but that chair is blue.'

PRONUNCIATION & STUDY TIP

Look around your room right now and describe five objects using color adjectives out loud.

Example Sentences

- This is a red apple, and that is a green apple.
- These pens are black, and those pens are blue.
- Is this your yellow bag?
- That window is open, but this door is closed.
- I like this white table for my room.
- These shapes are circles, and those shapes are squares.
- What color is your chair?
- My chair is red, and my table is white.

Common Mistakes to Avoid

- Putting the adjective after the noun — English needs 'a red chair', not 'a chair red'.
- Using 'this' for plural nouns — remember 'these' is for plural, near objects.
- Confusing 'square' and 'circle' — a square has four sides, a circle has none.

Dialogue

Dialogue: Shopping for a Desk

Shop assistant: Hello! Are you looking for something special?

Mohira: Yes, I need a new table for my room.

Shop assistant: We have this white table and that black table.

Mohira: I like this white one. How much is it?

Shop assistant: It's forty dollars. Do you need a chair too?

Mohira: Yes, do you have a red chair?

Shop assistant: We have these red chairs right here.

Mohira: Perfect! I'll take the white table and a red chair.

Shop assistant: Great choice! That will be seventy dollars total.

Mohira: Here you go. Thank you!

Reading Practice

My room is small but colorful. I have a blue door and a white window. My table is black, and my chair is red. On my table, there is a green lamp and a yellow notebook. I like my room because every object has a different color.

Reading Comprehension

109. What color is the table Mohira chooses?
110. How much does Mohira pay in total?
111. What color is the door in the reading passage?
112. Name two shapes mentioned in this unit.

Exercises

Exercise A: Fill in with this / that / these / those

- 113. _____ is my pen. (near, singular)

UNIT 6

The Verb 'To Be' in Detail

Learning Objectives

- Use am/is/are correctly in all sentence types
- Form negative and question sentences with 'to be'
- Talk about jobs and nationalities
- Use short answers (Yes, I am. / No, she isn't.)

Vocabulary

| Word               | Part of Speech | Meaning                                    | Example                      |
|--------------------|----------------|--------------------------------------------|------------------------------|
| job         | noun           | the work a person does for money           | What is your job?            |
| doctor      | noun           | a person who treats sick people            | My father is a doctor.       |
| engineer    | noun           | a person who designs and builds things     | She is an engineer.          |
| nurse       | noun           | a person who cares for sick people         | He is a kind nurse.          |
| driver      | noun           | a person who drives a vehicle              | My uncle is a bus driver.    |
| farmer      | noun           | a person who grows crops or raises animals | My grandfather was a farmer. |
| country     | noun           | a nation with its own government           | What country are you from?   |
| city        | noun           | a large town                               | Tashkent is a big city.      |
| nationality | noun           | the country a person legally belongs to    | What is your nationality?    |

| Word         | Part of Speech | Meaning                        | Example                |
|--------------|----------------|--------------------------------|------------------------|
| from  | preposition    | indicating the place of origin | I am from Uzbekistan.  |
| also  | adverb         | in addition; too               | She is also a student. |
| never | adverb         | not at any time                | He is never late.      |

GRAMMAR FOCUS: Positive, negative, and question forms

- Positive: subject + am/is/are + the rest of the sentence. 'I am a student.'
- Negative: subject + am/is/are + not + the rest. 'She is not a doctor.' (isn't / aren't in short form)
- Question: am/is/are + subject + the rest? 'Are you from Tashkent?'
- Short answers: 'Yes, I am.' / 'No, I'm not.' / 'Yes, she is.' / 'No, she isn't.' / 'Yes, they are.' / 'No, they aren't.'
- We use 'to be' with jobs and nationalities: 'He is an engineer.' 'They are Uzbek.'

PRONUNCIATION & STUDY TIP

Practice short answers daily: Yes, I am. / No, I'm not. / Yes, she is. / No, she isn't.

Example Sentences

- I am not a doctor; I am a teacher.
- Is she an engineer? Yes, she is.
- Are you from Uzbekistan? Yes, I am.
- He isn't a farmer; he is a driver.
- We aren't tired; we are excited.
- What is your nationality? I am Uzbek.
- Is he also a student? No, he isn't; he is a teacher.
- They are never late for class.

Common Mistakes to Avoid

- Forgetting 'not' in negatives — 'She is not a doctor', not 'She no a doctor'.
- Using 'is' with plural subjects — 'They are' not 'They is'.
- Answering a yes/no question with a full new sentence instead of a short answer.

Dialogue

Dialogue: Talking About Jobs

Interviewer: Hello, what is your name and job?

Bekzod: My name is Bekzod. I am an engineer.

Interviewer: Are you from this city?

Bekzod: No, I'm not. I am from Samarkand.

Interviewer: Interesting! Is your wife also an engineer?

Bekzod: No, she isn't. She is a nurse.

Interviewer: And are your children students?

Bekzod: Yes, they are. They are in school now.

Interviewer: Thank you for your time!

Bekzod: You're welcome. Goodbye!

Reading Practice

My name is Umida. I am not a doctor or an engineer; I am a teacher. I am from Bukhara, but now I live in Tashkent. My husband is also a teacher. We are never bored because we love our jobs. Our students are kind and hardworking.

Reading Comprehension

136. What is Bekzod's job, and where is he from?
137. Is Bekzod's wife an engineer?
138. Where is Umida from, and where does she live now?
139. Why does Umida say she is never bored?

UNIT 7

Days, Months &amp; Time

Learning Objectives

- Name the days of the week and months of the year
- Tell the time
- Talk about your weekly schedule
- Use prepositions of time (at, on, in)

Vocabulary

| Word             | Part of Speech | Meaning                           | Example                         |
|------------------|----------------|-----------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| Monday    | noun           | the first day of the working week | I have English class on Monday. |
| weekend   | noun           | Saturday and Sunday               | I relax on the weekend.         |
| today     | adverb         | this day                          | Today is Tuesday.               |
| tomorrow  | adverb         | the day after today               | Tomorrow is Wednesday.          |
| yesterday | adverb         | the day before today              | Yesterday was Sunday.           |
| month     | noun           | one of the twelve parts of a year | January is the first month.     |
| year      | noun           | a period of 365 days              | I started school this year.     |
| clock     | noun           | a device that shows the time      | The clock says three o'clock.   |
| hour      | noun           | a period of sixty minutes         | The class is one hour long.     |
| minute    | noun           | a period of sixty seconds         | Wait a minute, please.          |
| schedule  | noun           | a plan of things to do and times  | My schedule is very busy.       |

| Word           | Part of Speech | Meaning                    | Example            |
|----------------|----------------|----------------------------|--------------------|
| o'clock | phrase         | used to say the exact hour | It's five o'clock. |

GRAMMAR FOCUS: Prepositions of time: at, on, in

- Use 'at' with exact times: at 7 o'clock, at noon, at midnight.
- Use 'on' with days and dates: on Monday, on my birthday, on the 5th of May.
- Use 'in' with months, years, and longer periods: in June, in 2026, in the morning.
- To ask the time: 'What time is it?' Answer: 'It's three o'clock.' / 'It's half past three.'
- The days of the week: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday.

PRONUNCIATION & STUDY TIP

Keep a small weekly planner in English — write your schedule using at/on/in.

Example Sentences

- I have English class at 9 o'clock.
- We go to the market on Saturdays.
- My birthday is in July.
- What time is it? It's half past two.
- The lesson starts at 10 and ends at 11.
- Today is Thursday, and tomorrow is Friday.
- I study English every day, except on Sundays.
- In winter, the days are shorter.

Common Mistakes to Avoid

- Using 'in' with days — remember it's 'on Monday', not 'in Monday'.
- Forgetting 'o'clock' only works with exact hours, not with minutes like 'half past'.
- Mixing up 'today', 'tomorrow', and 'yesterday'.

Dialogue

Dialogue: Planning the Week

Ali: What is your schedule like this week?

Zarina: On Monday and Wednesday, I have English class at 9.

Ali: And what about the weekend?

Zarina: On Saturday, I visit my grandmother. On Sunday, I rest.

Ali: What time does your class start today?

Zarina: It starts at 9 o'clock and ends at 10:30.

Ali: Do you have class tomorrow too?

Zarina: No, tomorrow is Tuesday, so I don't have class.

Ali: What time is it now?

Zarina: It's a quarter past eight. We should hurry!

- ☐ I can use prepositions of time (at, on, in)

UNIT 8

Describing People &amp; Things

Learning Objectives

- Use common adjectives to describe people and objects
- Form comparative sentences
- Describe physical appearance
- Talk about personality

Vocabulary

| Word             | Part of Speech | Meaning                              | Example                         |
|------------------|----------------|--------------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| tall      | adjective      | having a greater than average height | My brother is very tall.        |
| short     | adjective      | having a small height or length      | The table is short.             |
| young     | adjective      | not old; in an early stage of life   | My cousin is young.             |
| old       | adjective      | having lived for a long time         | My grandfather is old and wise. |
| beautiful | adjective      | very pleasing to look at             | She has a beautiful smile.      |
| handsome  | adjective      | attractive, usually said of a man    | He is a handsome man.           |
| kind      | adjective      | friendly and caring                  | My teacher is very kind.        |
| funny     | adjective      | causing laughter                     | My friend is really funny.      |
| strong    | adjective      | having great physical power          | The athlete is strong.          |
| smart     | adjective      | intelligent; quick to learn          | She is a smart student.         |
| expensive | adjective      | costing a lot of money               | This phone is expensive.        |

| Word  | Part of Speech | Meaning              | Example            |
|-------|----------------|----------------------|--------------------|
| cheap | adjective      | costing little money | This pen is cheap. |

GRAMMAR FOCUS: Comparative adjectives (-er / more)

- For short adjectives (one syllable), add '-er': tall → taller, short → shorter, old → older.
- For adjectives ending in 'y', change 'y' to 'i' and add '-er': funny → funnier, easy → easier.
- For long adjectives (two or more syllables), use 'more' + adjective: more beautiful, more expensive.
- Use 'than' to compare two things: 'My brother is taller than me.'
- Some adjectives are irregular: good → better, bad → worse.

PRONUNCIATION & STUDY TIP

Compare two objects on your desk right now using a comparative adjective.

Example Sentences

- My sister is taller than me.
- This book is more interesting than that one.
- He is stronger than his friend.
- This bag is cheaper than that bag.
- She is smarter than her classmates think.
- My grandfather is older than my grandmother.
- This car is more expensive than that car.
- Today's weather is better than yesterday's.

Common Mistakes to Avoid

- Forgetting 'than' after a comparative — 'taller than', not just 'taller'.
- Doubling the comparative — never say 'more taller', only 'taller' or 'more beautiful'.
- Using 'gooder' instead of the irregular form 'better'.

Dialogue

Dialogue: Comparing Two Friends

Lola: Do you know my two brothers?

Rustam: Yes, a little. Which one is older?

Lola: Jasur is older, and Sanjar is younger.

Rustam: Is Jasur taller than Sanjar?

Lola: No, actually Sanjar is taller than Jasur.

Rustam: Interesting! Who is funnier?

Lola: Sanjar is funnier, but Jasur is smarter.

Rustam: They sound like great brothers.

Lola: Yes, and both of them are very kind.

Rustam: I would love to meet them!

Reading Practice

My best friend, Kamola, is shorter than me but smarter than most people I know. She is also very kind and funny. Her sister is taller and more athletic. Even though they look different, both sisters are beautiful and hardworking. I feel lucky to have such good friends.

Reading Comprehension

190. Who is taller, Jasur or Sanjar?
191. Who is funnier according to Lola?
192. How is Kamola described in the reading passage?
193. Name three adjectives used to describe people in this unit.

Exercises

Exercise A: Write the comparative form

- 194. tall → _____
- 195. big → _____
- 196. happy → _____
- 197. expensive → _____
- 198. good → _____
- 199. kind → _____

Exercise B: Match the adjective with its opposite

(Match each adjective on the left with its opposite on the right.)

- 200. tall
- 201. old

Unit 8 Self-Check

Read each statement. If you feel confident, put a check mark (✓) in the box before moving to the next unit.

- ☐ I can use common adjectives to describe people and objects
- ☐ I can form comparative sentences
- ☐ I can describe physical appearance
- ☐ I can talk about personality

UNIT 9

The Verb 'To Have'

Learning Objectives

- Use 'have/has' correctly
- Talk about possessions
- Describe family and belongings
- Ask questions with 'have you got...?'

Vocabulary

| Word               | Part of Speech | Meaning                                 | Example                         |
|--------------------|----------------|-----------------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| car         | noun           | a vehicle with four wheels              | My father has a new car.        |
| house       | noun           | a building where people live            | We have a big house.            |
| phone       | noun           | a device used to make calls             | I have a new phone.             |
| computer    | noun           | an electronic device for work and study | She has a laptop computer.      |
| pet         | noun           | an animal kept at home                  | We have a pet cat.              |
| money       | noun           | currency used to buy things             | He doesn't have much money.     |
| idea        | noun           | a thought or plan                       | I have a good idea.             |
| problem     | noun           | a difficult situation                   | We have a small problem.        |
| headache    | noun           | pain in the head                        | I have a headache today.        |
| appointment | noun           | an arranged meeting                     | She has a doctor's appointment. |
| bicycle     | noun           | a two-wheeled vehicle                   | My son has a red bicycle.       |
| garden      | noun           | an area for growing plants              | They have a lovely garden.      |

GRAMMAR FOCUS: Have / has for possession

- Use 'have' with I, you, we, they: 'I have a car.' 'They have a big house.'
- Use 'has' with he, she, it: 'He has a phone.' 'She has two pets.'
- Negative: don't/doesn't + have. 'I don't have a car.' 'She doesn't have a phone.'
- Question: Do/Does + subject + have...? 'Do you have a pet?' 'Does he have a car?'
- Informal British English also uses 'have got': 'I've got a car.' = 'I have a car.'

PRONUNCIATION & STUDY TIP

List five things you have in your bag and say each sentence with 'have' or 'has' out loud.

Example Sentences

- I have a small house with a garden.
- She has a headache today.
- Do you have a bicycle?
- He doesn't have a car, but he has a bicycle.
- We have an appointment at 4 o'clock.
- Does your family have a pet?
- They have two computers at home.
- I have a great idea for the weekend.

Common Mistakes to Avoid

- Using 'have' with he/she/it — remember it becomes 'has'.
- Forgetting 'do/does' in questions — 'Have you a car?' should be 'Do you have a car?'
- Saying 'I have hungry' instead of 'I am hungry' — hunger uses 'to be', not 'to have'.

Dialogue

Dialogue: At the Doctor's Office

Receptionist: Good morning! Do you have an appointment?

Patient: Yes, I have an appointment at 10 o'clock.

Receptionist: What is the problem today?

Patient: I have a bad headache.

Receptionist: I'm sorry to hear that. Do you have any other symptoms?

Patient: No, I don't. Just the headache.

Receptionist: Okay, please take a seat. The doctor has another patient right now.

Patient: No problem, I have time to wait.

Receptionist: Thank you for your patience.

Patient: You're welcome.

Reading Practice

My family has a small house with a big garden. My father has a car, and my mother has a bicycle. My brother doesn't have a phone yet because he is too young. We have a pet dog named Rex. Every weekend, we have a family lunch in the garden.

Reading Comprehension

Unit 9 Self-Check

Read each statement. If you feel confident, put a check mark (✓) in the box before moving to the next unit.

- ☐ I can use 'have/has' correctly
- ☐ I can talk about possessions
- ☐ I can describe family and belongings
- ☐ I can ask questions with 'have you got...?'

UNIT 10

Present Simple Tense

Learning Objectives

- Form the present simple in all persons
- Talk about habits and routines
- Use frequency adverbs (always, usually, sometimes, never)
- Ask and answer present simple questions

Vocabulary

| Word      | Part of Speech | Meaning                  | Example                        |
|-----------|----------------|--------------------------|--------------------------------|
| wake up   | phrasal verb   | to stop sleeping         | I wake up at 7 o'clock.        |
| work      | verb           | to do a job              | He works in a bank.            |
| study     | verb           | to learn about a subject | She studies English every day. |
| eat       | verb           | to consume food          | We eat breakfast at 8.         |
| drink     | verb           | to consume liquid        | I drink tea in the morning.    |
| sleep     | verb           | to rest with eyes closed | He sleeps eight hours a night. |
| always    | adverb         | at all times, 100%       | I always brush my teeth.       |
| usually   | adverb         | most of the time, ~80%   | She usually walks to school.   |
| sometimes | adverb         | occasionally, ~50%       | We sometimes eat out.          |
| rarely    | adverb         | not often, ~10%          | He rarely watches TV.          |
| never     | adverb         | at no time, 0%           | They never miss class.         |
| every day | adverb phrase  | on each day              | I study every day.             |

GRAMMAR FOCUS: Present simple: form and use

- Use the present simple for habits, routines, and general facts: 'I study English.' 'The sun rises in the east.'
- Add '-s' or '-es' to the verb for he/she/it: 'She works. He studies. It rains.'
- Negative: don't/doesn't + base verb. 'I don't work on Sundays.' 'He doesn't study at night.'
- Question: Do/Does + subject + base verb? 'Do you work here?' 'Does she study English?'
- Frequency adverbs usually go before the main verb, but after 'to be': 'I always wake up early.' 'She is always happy.'

PRONUNCIATION & STUDY TIP

Write five sentences about your own habits using always, usually, sometimes, rarely, and never.

Example Sentences

- I wake up at six every morning.
- She usually studies English after dinner.
- We sometimes eat pizza on Fridays.
- He never drinks coffee at night.
- Do you work on Saturdays? No, I don't.
- Does she sleep eight hours a night? Yes, she does.
- My father always drives to work.
- They rarely watch television during the week.

Common Mistakes to Avoid

- Forgetting the '-s' for he/she/it — 'She work' should be 'She works'.
- Using 'don't' with he/she/it — it should be 'doesn't'.
- Placing the frequency adverb after the main verb instead of before it (except with 'to be').

Dialogue

Dialogue: Daily Habits

Interviewer: What time do you usually wake up?

Farida: I usually wake up at 6:30.

Interviewer: Do you eat breakfast every day?

Farida: Yes, I always eat breakfast before school.

Interviewer: Do you study in the evening?

Farida: Sometimes. I usually study for two hours.

Interviewer: Does your brother help you with homework?

Farida: He rarely helps me; he is usually busy.

Interviewer: What time do you go to sleep?

Farida: I never sleep after 10 o'clock. I need my rest!

Reading Practice

Botir has a simple daily routine. He wakes up at seven o'clock and eats breakfast with his family. He always walks to work because it is good exercise. He works from nine to five. In the evening, he sometimes studies English, and he never forgets to drink water. He sleeps at eleven o'clock every night.

Reading Comprehension

- 244. What time does Farida usually wake up?
- 245. Does Farida's brother often help with homework?
- 246. What does Botir never forget to do in the evening?
- 247. How many hours does Botir work each day?

- ☐ I can form the present simple in all persons
- ☐ I can talk about habits and routines
- ☐ I can use frequency adverbs (always, usually, sometimes, never)
- ☐ I can ask and answer present simple questions

UNIT 11

Daily Routine &amp; Time Expressions

Learning Objectives

- Describe a full daily routine in order
- Use sequencing words (first, then, after that, finally)
- Talk about morning, afternoon, and evening activities
- Practice writing a short paragraph

Vocabulary

| Word               | Part of Speech | Meaning                           | Example                           |
|--------------------|----------------|-----------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| breakfast   | noun           | the first meal of the day         | I eat breakfast at 7.             |
| lunch       | noun           | the midday meal                   | We have lunch at noon.            |
| dinner      | noun           | the evening meal                  | Dinner is at 8 o'clock.           |
| shower      | noun/verb      | to wash your body with water      | I take a shower every morning.    |
| brush       | verb           | to clean using a brush            | I brush my teeth twice a day.     |
| get dressed | phrase         | to put on clothes                 | She gets dressed after breakfast. |
| leave       | verb           | to go away from a place           | He leaves home at 8.              |
| arrive      | verb           | to reach a place                  | We arrive at school at 8:30.      |
| finish      | verb           | to complete something             | I finish work at 5.               |
| relax       | verb           | to rest and feel calm             | We relax after dinner.            |
| first       | adverb         | at the beginning                  | First, I wake up.                 |
| finally     | adverb         | at the end, after everything else | Finally, I go to sleep.           |

GRAMMAR FOCUS: Sequencing words in a routine

- Sequencing words help organize actions in order: first, then, after that, next, later, finally.
- Example: 'First, I wake up. Then, I take a shower. After that, I eat breakfast.'
- These words usually come at the beginning of a sentence, followed by a comma.
- Combining sequencing words with the present simple describes a clear routine.
- Example: 'First, I wake up at 6. Then, I get dressed. Finally, I leave for work at 8.'

PRONUNCIATION & STUDY TIP

Write out your own morning routine in six steps using first, then, after that, and finally.

Example Sentences

- First, I wake up and brush my teeth.
- Then, I take a shower and get dressed.
- After that, I eat breakfast with my family.
- Next, I leave home and arrive at school at 8:30.
- Later, I have lunch with my classmates.
- In the evening, I finish my homework and relax.
- Finally, I go to sleep at 10 o'clock.
- My whole day follows the same simple order.

Common Mistakes to Avoid

- Forgetting a comma after sequencing words like 'First,' or 'Then,'.
- Repeating 'then' for every step — vary your sequencing words for a better flow.
- Mixing past and present tense within one routine description.

Dialogue

Dialogue: A Typical Day

Malika: What is your typical day like?

Sanjar: First, I wake up at six and exercise a little.

Malika: What do you do after that?

Sanjar: Then, I take a shower and eat breakfast.

Malika: And after breakfast?

Sanjar: After that, I leave home and arrive at work at nine.

Malika: What about lunch?

Sanjar: I have lunch at noon with my coworkers.

Malika: And in the evening?

Sanjar: I finish work at six, have dinner, and finally relax before bed.

Reading Practice

Every day follows the same routine for Nigora. First, she wakes up at 6:30 and drinks a glass of water. Then, she takes a shower and gets dressed. After that, she eats breakfast with her family. Next, she leaves home and arrives at the office by 9. She has lunch at noon and finishes work at 5. Finally, she relaxes with a book before going to sleep.

Reading Comprehension

271. What is the first thing Sanjar does in his day?
272. What time does Nigora arrive at the office?
273. What does Nigora do before going to sleep?
274. Put these three actions in order: eat breakfast, wake up, take a shower.

Exercises

Exercise A: Put the routine in the correct order (1-6)

- 275. I eat breakfast.
- 276. I wake up.
- 277. I go to sleep.
- 278. I take a shower.
- 279. I finish work.
- 280. I leave home.

Exercise B: Match the sequencing word with its position in a list

(Match each word on the left with the position it is normally used in.)

- 281. first
- 282. finally
- 283. then

Exercise C: Write your own paragraph

- 284. Write your full daily routine using sequencing words.
- 285. Write three sentences about your evening routine.
- 286. Write a sentence about your favorite part of the day.

Exercise D: Speaking practice

- 287. Describe your daily routine to a partner using sequencing words.
- 288. Ask a partner what time they do five different activities.
- 289. Compare your weekday routine with your weekend routine.

Exercise E: Grammar Practice

Complete each sentence using what you learned in the Grammar Focus box.

- 290. _____, I wake up and brush my teeth.

291. _____ , I take a shower and get dressed.
292. _____ that, I eat breakfast.
293. _____ , I go to sleep at ten.
294. I _____ (leave) home at eight every day.
295. We _____ (arrive) at school at 8:30.
296. He _____ (finish) work at five.
297. In the evening, I _____ (relax) with a book.

CULTURE CORNER

Many English speakers describe their routine using time markers like 'first thing in the morning' or 'right before bed' instead of exact clock times.

UNIT 12

Food &amp; Drinks

Learning Objectives

- Name common foods and drinks
- Use countable and uncountable nouns
- Order food at a restaurant
- Talk about likes and dislikes

Vocabulary

| Word         | Part of Speech            | Meaning                             | Example                        |
|--------------|---------------------------|-------------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| bread | noun(uncountable) | a food made from flour and water    | I eat bread every morning.     |
| rice  | noun(uncountable) | a small white or brown grain        | We eat rice with meat.         |
| water | noun(uncountable) | a clear liquid necessary for life   | Please drink more water.       |
| apple | noun(countable)       | a round fruit, usually red or green | I ate an apple for lunch.      |
| egg   | noun(countable)       | an oval food from a chicken         | I have two eggs for breakfast. |
| milk  | noun(uncountable) | a white liquid from cows            | I drink milk every day.        |
| meat  | noun(uncountable) | food from an animal's body          | We don't eat meat every day.   |

| Word             | Part of Speech   | Meaning                               | Example                        |
|------------------|------------------|---------------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| vegetable | noun (countable) | a plant food like carrots or potatoes | Eat more vegetables.           |
| hungry    | adjective        | needing food                          | I am very hungry.              |
| thirsty   | adjective        | needing to drink                      | She is thirsty.                |
| menu      | noun             | a list of food in a restaurant        | Can I see the menu, please?    |
| order     | verb             | to ask for food or drink              | I would like to order a salad. |

GRAMMAR FOCUS: Countable and uncountable nouns; some/any

- Countable nouns can be counted: one apple, two apples, three eggs.
- Uncountable nouns cannot be counted directly: water, rice, bread, milk, meat (no plural form).
- Use 'a/an' with singular countable nouns: 'an apple', 'a carrot'. Never use 'a/an' with uncountable nouns.
- Use 'some' in positive sentences and offers: 'I have some rice.' 'Would you like some water?'
- Use 'any' in negatives and questions: 'I don't have any bread.' 'Do you have any eggs?'

PRONUNCIATION & STUDY TIP

Look in your kitchen and sort five food items into countable and uncountable groups.

Example Sentences

- I would like some rice and a glass of water.
- Do you have any bread?
- I don't have any milk at home.
- She eats an apple every day.
- We need some eggs for the recipe.
- I am hungry — let's order some food.
- Are you thirsty? I have some juice.
- Can I see the menu, please?

Common Mistakes to Avoid

- Using 'a' or 'an' with uncountable nouns — you cannot say 'a rice' or 'a bread'.
- Using 'some' in questions — normally 'any' is used in questions instead.
- Forgetting that 'water', 'milk', and 'rice' have no plural form.

Dialogue

Dialogue: At a Restaurant

Waiter: Good evening! Are you ready to order?

Customer: Yes, can I see the menu again, please?

Waiter: Of course, here you go.

Customer: I would like some rice and vegetables, please.

Waiter: Would you like any meat with that?

Customer: No, thank you. I don't eat meat.

Waiter: No problem. Anything to drink?

Customer: Yes, some water, please. I'm quite thirsty.

Waiter: Certainly. Your order will be ready soon.

Customer: Thank you very much!

Reading Practice

Every morning, Shahnoza eats bread and eggs for breakfast. She also drinks a glass of milk. For lunch, she usually has rice with vegetables. She doesn't eat much meat because she prefers vegetables. When she is thirsty, she drinks water instead of juice. At the restaurant, she always checks the menu before she orders.

Reading Comprehension

298. What does the customer order at the restaurant?
299. Why doesn't the customer want meat?
300. What does Shahnoza drink when she is thirsty?
301. Name two uncountable foods mentioned in this unit.

Exercises

Exercise A: Fill in with some / any

- 302. I have _____ apples in my bag.
- 303. Do you have _____ bread?
- 304. We don't have _____ milk.
- 305. Can I have _____ water, please?
- 306. There aren't _____ eggs in the fridge.
- 307. I would like _____ rice.

Exercise B: Match the food with countable / uncountable

| Word            | Part of Speech | Meaning                                 | Example                            |
|-----------------|----------------|-----------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| bank     | noun           | a place where you keep and manage money | I need to go to the bank.          |
| hospital | noun           | a place where sick people are treated   | The hospital is near my house.     |
| park     | noun           | a public area with grass and trees      | We walk in the park every evening. |
| market   | noun           | a place to buy food and goods           | My mother shops at the market.     |
| street   | noun           | a road in a town or city                | Our house is on this street.       |
| corner   | noun           | the point where two streets meet        | Turn left at the corner.           |
| straight | adverb         | in a direct line, without turning       | Go straight for two blocks.        |
| left     | adverb/noun    | the opposite direction of right         | Turn left at the light.            |
| right    | adverb/noun    | the opposite direction of left          | Turn right at the bank.            |
| near     | preposition    | close to something                      | The school is near my house.       |

| Word            | Part of Speech | Meaning                          | Example                                      |
|-----------------|----------------|----------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|
| between  | preposition    | in the middle of two things      | The bank is between the park and the market. |
| opposite | preposition    | facing something, across from it | The hospital is opposite the school.         |

GRAMMAR FOCUS: Prepositions of place and giving directions

- Common prepositions of place: in, on, at, near, next to, between, opposite, behind, in front of.
- 'In front of' means directly before something; 'behind' means directly after or in back of it.
- 'Between' is used with two things: 'The park is between the school and the bank.'
- Direction phrases: 'Go straight.' 'Turn left/right.' 'Cross the street.' 'It's on your left/right.'
- To ask for directions: 'Excuse me, how do I get to the market?' or 'Is there a bank near here?'

PRONUNCIATION & STUDY TIP

Draw a simple map of your neighborhood and describe the locations using prepositions of place.

Example Sentences

- The hospital is near my house.
- Turn left at the corner, then go straight.
- The bank is between the park and the market.
- The school is opposite the hospital.
- Go straight for two blocks, then turn right.
- Excuse me, how do I get to the nearest bank?
- The market is behind the school.
- There is a park in front of my house.

Common Mistakes to Avoid

- Confusing 'right' (direction) with 'right' (correct) — context makes the meaning clear.
- Forgetting 'the' before place names like 'the market' or 'the bank'.
- Mixing up 'in front of' and 'behind' — they are opposites.

Dialogue

Dialogue: Asking for Directions

Tourist: Excuse me, how do I get to the market?

Local: Go straight for two blocks, then turn left.

Tourist: Is it near the bank?

Local: Yes, it's right next to the bank.

Tourist: And is there a park nearby too?

Local: Yes, the park is opposite the market.

Tourist: Thank you so much for your help!

Local: You're welcome. It's about a five-minute walk.

Tourist: Perfect, I'll head there now.

Local: Have a great day!

Reading Practice

My neighborhood has many useful places. There is a hospital near my house and a park across the street. The bank is between the market and the school. If you want to go to the market, you go straight for three blocks and turn right at the corner. It's a beautiful walk, especially in the morning.

Reading Comprehension

- 325. Where is the market compared to the bank in the dialogue?
- 326. How does the tourist get to the market?
- 327. What places are near Aziz's house in the reading passage?
- 328. Where exactly is the bank located, according to the reading?

|----------|----------------|---------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| umbrella | noun           | a tool used to stay dry in rain | Don't forget your umbrella. |

GRAMMAR FOCUS: Using 'it' to talk about weather

- We always use 'it' as the subject when talking about weather: 'It is sunny.' 'It is raining.'
- 'It' has no real meaning here — it is simply required by English grammar for weather sentences.
- Weather adjectives: 'It is sunny/rainy/cloudy/windy/snowy/hot/cold.'
- Weather verbs: 'It rains.' (present simple, general fact) or 'It is raining.' (present continuous, happening now).
- To ask about weather: 'What's the weather like today?' or 'How is the weather?'

PRONUNCIATION & STUDY TIP

Check the weather forecast today and describe it out loud in a full English sentence.

Example Sentences

- What's the weather like today? It's sunny and warm.
- It is raining, so take your umbrella.
- In winter, it is often cold and snowy here.
- It's windy today, hold on to your hat!
- In summer, it is usually hot and sunny.
- It is cloudy this morning, but it may clear up later.
- My favorite season is spring because the weather is mild.
- It rains a lot in autumn in this city.

Common Mistakes to Avoid

- Forgetting to use 'it' as the subject for weather sentences.
- Saying 'The weather is rain' instead of 'It is raining' or 'It rains'.
- Confusing 'windy' and 'winter' — they look similar but mean different things.

Dialogue

Dialogue: Checking the Weather

Aida: What's the weather like today?

Jamshid: It's sunny, but a little windy.

Aida: Perfect! Should I bring a jacket?

Jamshid: Maybe a light one. It's not too cold.

Aida: What's the weather like tomorrow?

Jamshid: It's going to be rainy, I think.

Aida: Then I'll bring my umbrella.

Jamshid: Good idea. What's your favorite season?

Aida: I love spring — it's not too hot or too cold.

Jamshid: I prefer summer. I love sunny, hot days!

Reading Practice

In my city, the weather changes with the seasons. In spring, it is mild and sometimes rainy. In summer, it is hot and sunny, perfect for swimming. In autumn, it becomes cool and windy, and the leaves change color. In winter, it is cold and often snowy. My favorite season is autumn because I love the cool weather.

Reading Comprehension

- 352. What is the weather like today in the dialogue?
- 353. Why does Aida decide to bring an umbrella?
- 354. What is the weather like in each of the four seasons, according to the reading?
- 355. Which season does the writer of the reading passage prefer, and why?

GRAMMAR FOCUS: Present continuous: am/is/are + verb-ing

- Use the present continuous for actions happening right now: 'I am studying.' 'They are playing football.'
- Form: subject + am/is/are + verb + -ing. 'She is reading a book.'
- Negative: subject + am/is/are + not + verb-ing. 'He is not sleeping.'
- Question: Am/Is/Are + subject + verb-ing? 'Are you listening to me?'
- Compare with present simple: present simple = habits/routines ('I study every day'); present continuous = now ('I am studying now').

PRONUNCIATION & STUDY TIP

Look around you right now and say three sentences using the present continuous about what is happening.

Example Sentences

- I am reviewing this lesson right now.
- She is writing an email at the moment.
- They are not watching TV; they are studying.
- Is he cooking dinner right now?
- We are cleaning the classroom together.
- My brother usually plays football, but today he is studying.
- Are you listening to the teacher?
- The students are completing the final test now.

Common Mistakes to Avoid

- Using the present continuous for habits — 'I am study every day' should be 'I study every day'.
- Forgetting '-ing' on the main verb in continuous sentences.
- Mixing up am/is/are with the wrong subject in continuous questions.

Dialogue

Dialogue: Finishing the Course

Teacher: What are you doing right now, class?

Students: We are reviewing all fifteen units!

Teacher: Great! Who is completing the final test?

Dilshod: I am! I'm almost finished.

Teacher: Wonderful. And what are you doing, Zilola?

Zilola: I am checking my answers for exercise B.

Teacher: Excellent work, everyone. This is your last unit!

Students: We are so proud of what we've learned!

Teacher: You should be! You started with the alphabet, and now you're having full conversations.

Students: Thank you, teacher! We are ready for the next level!

Reading Practice

Congratulations! You have finished this beginner course from EMERALD LAB. Right now, you are reading the final unit. You started by learning the alphabet, and now you can talk about your family, your routine, the weather, and much more. Keep practicing every day, and soon you will be ready for the next level: Elementary English.

Reading Comprehension

- 379. What are the students doing in the final dialogue?
- 380. What was the very first topic students learned in this book?
- 381. According to the closing reading, what should learners do after finishing this course?
- 382. Name two things you can now do in English that you could not do before Unit 1.
